WE are being colonised by racial aliens. New Government figures reveal that an alarmingly high percentage of babies are born to Coloured immigrant mothers from the New Commonwealth.

The Registrar General's statistical review of England and Wales for 1973 shows that in the London Borough of Haringey 35% of the births are to mothers from the New Commonwealth and Pakistan. Brent lies a close second with 34.5%, Hackney has 31.5%, Ealing 31%, Newham 30%, Lambeth 29%, Islington and Wandsworth 26%, Tower Hamlets 25%, Hammersmith and Waltham Forest 21%, and Southwark 20%.

These are not isolated examples, they comprise a sizeable proportion of London's central boroughs. Taking into account births to Coloureds who were born themselves in Britain, as well as births to White and non-White immigrants from other places than the New Commonwealth, a frightening picture emerges of our capital city becoming predominantly alien. Already one in three births in London is to a woman born abroad. The percentage of Coloured births today determines the percentage of the population that will be Coloured in the years to come.

The trend is repeated in many of Britain's major towns and cities such as Birmingham, Blackburn, Bradford, Dewsbury, Huddersfield, Leicester, Warley and Wolverhampton, the highest percentage of Coloured births amongst these being 25%.

THE SHANKILL ROAD is a symbol of Ulster Loyalist resistance both to Irish Republicanism and to Westminster betrayal. It is small wonder, therefore, that the Westminster traitors should want to do all in their power to destroy it.

Any direct attempt, of course, would be fiercely resisted. Therefore, a policy of gradual erosion has been adopted. The whole of the Shankill may not be levelled tomorrow, but houses are continually being blocked up or pulled down and the Loyalist community is being resettled elsewhere.

Local people have no say in the matter. Following local government reorganisation, power lies — not with the democratically elected representatives of the people — but in the hands of nominees from Westminster. In the words of Belfast City Councillor and Convention Member Hugh Smyth:

allowed unless it is authorised by the Shankill Community Council. If necessary we shall erect barricades and physically stop the bulldozers from coming in."

The people of the Shankill have been pushed far enough. Robbed of their democratic rights, betrayed by Westminster, they have no choice but to defend their community by whatever means necessary. We must aid that defence by pressuring Establishment M.P.s and demanding that Rees restores control of the Shankill to its own people.

Around this hard core have circulated many aspirant politicians including Wilson and Heath who were invited to attend long before either of them became Prime Minister.

Bilderberg policy is not planned by all those who attend its conferences, but by an elite steering committee, and behind that a further "inner circle". Labour's Communist connections

by DAVE McCALDEN

ALTHOUGH South Vietnam and Cambodia have fallen under a Communist invasion and Portugal has become the victim of a Communist coup d'état, it would appear that Britain is destined for rather a different kind of takeover — conquest from above. Already Britain assists the Soviet Union directly through subsidised trading credits, and indirectly through cheap food sales via the Common Market swindle. However, this is merely the tip of the iceberg, for dozens of individual Labour Members of Parliament have long records of belonging to, or fraternising with, Communist organisations.

The present Chancellor of the Exchequer, Denis Healey was a member of the Communist Party whilst at Oxford University, and campaigned for Britain to stay out of the war against the Soviet Union's ally, Hitlerite Germany. Later, Healey was to become Minister of Defence, gaining for himself the reputation of Britain's most notorious asset-stripper, as he dismembered the armed forces. In his biography, Healey admits that he is not the only Labour M.P. with a Communist past, it's just that he is more honest than the others.

Perhaps he was thinking of Sydney Bidwell, MP for Ealing, Southall, who was previously a member of a Trotskyite party. According to Mr. Bidwell himself, he still has "great respect for Trotsky" (Trotsky was the chief of the Red Army which massacred twenty million 'counter-revolutionaries' in the 1920s). Sternberg has devoted much of his life to promoting East-West trade and has personally arranged Wilson's various diplomatic and trade visits behind the Iron Curtain. DARTMOUTH CONFERENCE

Following last year's Bilderberg Conference, which was held at a Rothschild owned luxury hotel in the remote French ski-resort of Megeve, David and Nelson Rockefeller flew in their private jet to Tbilisi in the Soviet Union, venue of the Dartmouth Conference.

The Dartmouth Conference is an annual meeting between international bankers and representatives of the Soviet Government, at which plans are made for taxpayer-financed aid to the Soviets in return for privately-held commercial and industrial concessions.

MONETARY UNION

Topics discussed this year included world inflation and the Middle East situation. The main conference was reported to have been "indecisive", which was a good way of disguising planning decisions reached behind the scenes.

The worldwide simultaneous inflation and depression which is a direct result of the economic System and those that control it, is ironically being used by those people as a justification for increasing their own power. To this end they want to establish a single world monetary authority, the prelude to which will be Common Market monetary union. Like the World Bank it will be under the control of private bankers.

With regard to the Middle East the world financial Establishment are very worried by the fact that the Arab-Israeli conflict has led to the refusal of Arab powers to co-operate with its pro-Israel institutions. By de-escalating the Middle East conflict, they hope to pave the way for increasing re-penetration of the Arab countries.

Reports suggest that the United States and the Soviet Union will use their military might to enforce a joint guarantee of Israel's borders. They will use the threatened seizure of Libyan oil wealth as the stick, and technological aid to Arab countries as the carrot.

As far back as the beginning of 1974, the 'American' Export-Import Bank extended a £42m loan to the Egyptians for the construction of an oil pipeline from the Gulf of Suez to Alexandria, though there had been no similar loans for the previous ten years.

The blow will undoubtedly come in the form of the carrot rather than the stick, as technological aid is nothing but the Trojan Horse of domination by International Finance.

Attending the Bilderberg Conference this year were Arthur Hartman (US Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs), Donald Rumsfeld (White House Aide), George Ball (former US Under-Secretary of State), Robert McNamara (President of the World Bank), Giovanni Agnelli (Fiat head), Joseph Luns (Secretary-General of NATO), David Rockefeller and Edmund de Rothschild.

He is also chairman of the London Area Council of Liberation — the Communist Party-front which organised the Red Lion Square activities of last June.

A number of Labour MPs have from time to time supported the activities of the Morning Star, the Communist Party's official mouthpiece. These include the aforesaid Sydney Bidwell, Frank Allaun, Norman Atkinson, Michael Foot, Eric Heffer, Roy Hughes, Alec Jones, Richard Kelley, Russell Kerr, Gwilyn Roberts, Renee Short, Dennis Skinner, James Sillars, Julius Silverman, Tom Swain, William Wilson and Judith Hart. The group was disbanded some years ago, presumably after it had achieved its object. Silverman is also the chairman of the Anglo-Soviet Parliamentary Group, and has visited the USSR on many occasions. On a Radio Moscow broadcast in 1957 he described the May Day parades as 'terrifying' and 'most impressive and remarkable'. In 1971 he sent a message of solidarity to a meeting celebrating the 1917 Bolshevik seizure of power in Russia.

Many other alien immigrants founded successful businesses under Wilson's reign as Trade Minister. There is Harry Kissin, the millionaire chairman of Guinness Peat commodity brokers, Sigmund Sternberg, chairman of the Mountstar Metal Corporation, Sir Joseph Kagan, chairman of Gannex Textiles (whose raincoats Harold wears), and Montague Meyer, the timber broker who later employed Wilson as his parliamentary specialist in East-West trade. FOLLOWING closely upon her tour of Mexico, the Queen has paid a State visit to Japan with the declared objective of restoring the links of friendship between that country and Britain. Behind this lies the desire of financial wheel-dealers to get control over the Japanese economy.

DOWN AND OUT

VANESSA REDGRAVE, the actress, former WRP candidate, and notorious publicity seeker, is facing hard times. She is being sued for £7,300, said to be the balance outstanding on a £30,254 contract for building work on her home in St. Peter's Square, Hammersmith. It's certainly a difficult life for a 'worker revolutionary'.

Margaret Thatcher

Healey, who is Labour's Chancellor of the Exchequer, has previously been associated with Royal Institute of International Affairs (Chatham House), the International Institute of Strategic Studies, and the Communist Party of which he was once a very active member. Margaret Thatcher, leader of the Tory Party, is also President of the Finchley Anglo-Israel Friendship League.

Two of these, Stan Thorne and Joan Maynard actually took part in a Troops Out Movement demonstration in London in October 1974. Chants on the demonstration included "Victory to the IRA!"

However, perhaps the most startling aspect of this Labour/Communist liaison, is the way various Labour Party members have been involved in East-West trade. Most of them are Eastern European immigrants who gained their start in business whilst Harold Wilson was President of the Board of Trade from 1947 to 1951.

Most prominent is Ian Mikardo, MP, who is now the Chairman of the Parliamentary Labour Party. Ian Mikardo Ltd. was founded in 1946 as an export broking firm specialising in trade with East Germany. At one time the firm had a near monopoly of such business.

One of the directors of Ian Mikardo Ltd. is Jo Richardson, the newly-elected MP for Barking. She was previously Mikardo's private secretary and sales manager

TWERPS

FACED with internal dissension and dissatisfaction, the leadership of the Trotskyite Workers' Revolutionary Party has decided to resort to the tactic which has always found to have been useful to dictators in the past — that of building up an external enemy in order to damp down internal trouble.

The WRP leadership has now decided to take part in anti-National Front confrontations side by side with the pseudo-Trotskyites of the International Socialists and the International Marxist Group.

This shows a complete abandonment of principle by the WRP leadership, which has in the past always recognised the IS and IMG to be 'bourgeois diletantes' and their activities as 'adventurist play-acting' before the TV cameras and reporters of the Establishment media.

Since their defeat in world war Two the Japanese have vigorously pursued a shortsighted policy of expanding into world markets whilst attempting to protect their home markets from foreign penetration. This has led them to build up huge industries dependant upon imported raw materials and geared to production for export markets. With the worsening world trade and financial situation, and in particular the trouble over oil supplies, the Japanese economic position has become precarious.

Although the latest developments are an undoubted sign of accelerating penetration, it has never-the-less been going on for some time. Over four years ago the Rothschilds began to gamble on the Japanese Stock Exchange.

For obvious reasons members of the Rothschild family would look rather out of place in Japan. Therefore, they selected a frontman, Osamu Sasaki, as an "investment manager", and gave him $27m of Rothschild money with which to play the Tokyo Stock Market.

EXIT ...

THE HANGING in Trinidad of Michael X, alias Michael de Freitas, marked the end of a squalid career that many Establishment trendies would no doubt prefer to forget.

De Freitas, the son of a Portuguese father and a West Indian mother (a mulatto like so many 'Black' Power enthusiasts), first came to Britain when he was 17. He soon found himself a lucrative occupation terrorising the Black tenants of Notting Hill slumlord, Peter Rachman. At around the same time he set up a chain of no less than twenty-eight brothels.

These occupations were not enough to keep him amused, however, and he became enamoured with Black Power. He changed his name first to Michael Abdul Malik, and then to Michael X in memory of Malcolm X, the assassinated American Black Power leader. He also started an organisation called the Racial Adjustment Action Society, which was patronised by many well-known trendy Lefties, although none of them realised that the initials of the organisation spelt a West Indian term of sexual abuse!

Michael X opened up a Black House in London's Holloway Road with £15,000 contributed by Nigel Samuel, the son of the 'Socialist' property millionaire Howard Samuel. John and Yoko Lennon contributed their hair to be sold in aid of the Black House's 'cultural programme'; while the Government's Community Relations Commission made a donation of 100 guineas, disguised as a purchase of booklets.

The CRC paid 2 guineas each for booklets normally costing 5/-. The donation was arranged by the CRC's deputy secretary, Sam Morris, a West Indian who was formerly Press Secretary to President Nkrumah, but who has now become a teacher at the trouble-racked Tulse Hill School in Brixton. The payment was underwritten by

Michael X

Theatre Company — a multi-racial theatre group in Brixton.

During this period, de Freitas gained for himself the rather dubious distinction of becoming the first Black man to be convicted under the newly-introduced Race Relations Act. He served one year's imprisonment for advocating the killing of White people at Reading in 1967.

De Freitas began to move in wealthy circles, especially after he moved to Hampstead. His 'autobiography' was published by Andre Deutsch, the latter being highly impressed by de Freitas's "nobility and integrity", despite the fact that the book was ghosted from beginning to end.

In 1970 de Freitas fled from Britain after skipping bail on a mugging charge. He took refuge in his native Trinidad, where he was visited from time to time by his contacts from Britain. One was Hakim Jamal, the American Black Power activist who helped set up Grass Roots, the Black Panther newspaper in London. Hakim was accompanied by his White British girl-friend, Gale Benson, the daughter of Capt. Leonard Plugge, who was at one time the Conservative MP for Chatham.

When Hakim began to find the wayward debutante rather a strain, she was hacked up with a machete and buried alive in a shallow grave in de Freitas's garden, along with Joseph Skerritt, de Freitas's cousin.

Hakim, who was born Allen Donaldson in Boston, Massachusetts, was himself murdered in strange circumstances later that year. Warrants were issued for the arrest of de Freitas for Skerritt's murder, but no charges were ever brought concerning the murders of Benson and Hakim. De Freitas promptly took off for Brazil but was finally run to ground hiding in a woodyard in the forests of Guyana. He was to the last the proverbial 'nigger in the woodpile'.

"FIRMLY GRASP REVOLUTIONARY SELF-CRITICISM" —MAO TSE-TUNG

THE LUNATIC FRINGE Communist Party of England (Marxist-Leninist) may soon be forming a new branch in West London — inside Wormwood Scrubs prison.

Two of its national organisers, John Clarke and Paul Rowe, were jailed for ten months last January for assaulting the National Front's Activity Organiser, Martin Webster, at a demonstration in Leicester. Now five other comrades are on trial for assaulting police officers in Battersea during last October's General Election.

The incident at Leicester occurred at a mass demonstration in support of White workers at Leicester's Imperial factory. The CPE(M-L)'s daily broadsheet, Workers' Daily, inaccurately boasted that CPE(M-L) members had taken action including "the severe beating of the National Front's national organiser Martin Webster. Webster was chased and soundly thrashed by two comrades from the Communist Party of England (Marxist-Leninist)". Much slighter though the assault was, the two comrades were justly sentenced to ten months apiece.

However, in the six months' interval between the arrest and trial of the two, one of the assailants, Paul Rowe, appeared in another court on the opposite side of the dock. The Scarman Tribunal, set up to investigate the Red Lion Square riot of 15th June, 1974, suffered the misfortune of being continually harangued and interrupted by the tedious Mr. Rowe, who was an official representative of the CPE(M-L). At frequent intervals, Mr. Rowe would argue and dispute points of order with the judge, much to the embarrassment of the boys of professional teacher, Ruth Pushkin, a lecturer at Manchester University, Dr. George Rousseau (or Russell), a Mathematics lecturer at Leicester University, Roger Tenner, a Battersea teacher, Adrian Rifkin, a lecturer at Portsmouth Poly., Frances Rifkin (his sister), an 'actress', Carole Chant, a lecturer at London College of Printing, Hugh Shrapnell, a music teacher, and Stella Cardew, an art teacher. BLACKBURN'S BIZARRE BURIALS

A ROW has flared up in Blackburn, Lancashire, over the bizarre burial customs of some of the town's immigrant inhabitants, who have a peculiar desire to be buried without coffins when they pass on.

Unfortunately, Blackburn's cemetery is very wet indeed, and the stench of rancid water that prevades the cemetery has caused complaints. At times, gravediggers digging next to these graves have had to quit their work to be physically sick.

The complaints caused Blackburn's Public Services Committee

Theatre Company — a multi-racial theatre group in Brixton.

During this period, de Freitas gained for himself the rather dubious distinction of becoming the first Black man to be convicted under the newly-introduced Race Relations Act. He served one year's imprisonment for advocating the killing of White people at Reading in 1967.

De Freitas began to move in wealthy circles, especially after he moved to Hampstead. His 'auto-

Donaldsen in Boston, Massachusetts, was himself murdered in strange circumstances later that year. Warrants were issued for the arrest of de Freitas for Skerritt's murder, but no charges were ever brought concerning the murders of Benson and Hakim. De Freitas promptly took off for Brazil but was finally run to ground hiding in a woodyard in the forests of Guyana. He was to the last the proverbial 'nigger in the woodpile'.

DARK INTENTIONS IN RED PRINT

THE Government's Community Relations Commission has produced a calendar which includes the festivals celebrated by all the various religious groups that now exist within Britain as a result of Coloured immigration.

Turning to the back cover we find that the calendar has been printed by "SW (Litho) Printers" of "Corbridge Works, Corbridge Crescent, London, E2 9DS".

New readers of Britain First may note that "SW" stands for Socialist Worker and that the Corbridge Works are in fact the printing works of the Communist fringe group known as the International Socialists. The revenue which the I.S. derive from commercial printing work such as this helps them to subsidise production of Socialist Worker, their weekly newspaper.

The fact that the Community Relations Commission gives work to SW (Litho) means that it is in effect financing a Communist fringe group with taxpayers' money.

In fact, the Community Relations Commission has been having their printing done by SW Litho (or its front Feb Edge Litho) for the past three years. The Trotskyite printing company also print the 24,000-run Education & Community Relations bulletin which is displayed in every school staff-room in the country.

When a Britain First investigator spoke to a Mr. Matin, the Information Officer at the CRC, Mr. Matin confirmed that a large proportion vides yet another example of how the Capitalist Establishment is actually willing to promote so-called 'Left wing revolutionaries', especially if these groups are obsessed with attacking the only genuine revolutionary force in Britain today — the cause of British Nationalism as expounded by the National Front.

Further evidence of the involvement of this Government agency in promoting Communist inspired attacks on the National Front, was given by the Communist Party newspaper, Morning Star.

In its May 13th edition it reported the Oxford National Front meeting covered by us elsewhere in this issue. The Morning Star stated: "Over 25 banners, including that of the South Midlands Communist Party, were there in the throng. A separate contingent from the Oxford Council for Community Relations was present. It had helped build support for the demonstration by distributing leaflets in minority languages."

that CPE(M-L) members had taken action including "the severe beating of the National Front's national organiser Martin Webster. Webster was chased and soundly thrashed by two comrades from the Communist Party of England (Marxist-Leninist)". Much slighter though the assault was, the two comrades were justly sentenced to ten months apiece.

However, in the six months' interval between the arrest and trial of the two, one of the assailants, Paul Rowe, appeared in another court on the opposite side of the dock. The Scarman Tribunal, set up to investigate the Red Lion Square riot of 15th June, 1974, suffered the misfortune of being continually harangued and interrupted by the tedious Mr. Rowe, who was an official representative of the CPE(M-L). At frequent intervals, Mr. Rowe would argue and dispute points of order with the judge, much to the embarrassment of the bevy of professional Left-wing lawyers on the same bench. Mr. Rowe also attempted to attack Martin Webster (verbally this time) who was the National Front's witness at the hearing. However, Martin Webster was more than a match for the arrogant Maoist, as the official minutes show:

ROWE: You must have been pretty apprehensive when you saw facing you at Vernon Place a crowd of demonstrators and the only banner which was clearly displayed was the banner of the Communist Party of England (Marxist-Leninist) at that stage?

WEBSTER: To be honest, I cannot even remember seeing that particular banner. It was just a large crowd as far as I was concerned.

Last October the CPE(M-L) was involved in yet another violent fracas — this time in Queenstown Road, Battersea near to the CPE(M-L) flop-house. A car-load of Maoists returning from an open-air meeting was stopped by the police, on a routine investigation into a theft of lead from a nearby building-site. A fist-fight immediately broke out, and even after the CPE(M-L)ers were put into a paddy waggon, they still tried to

The complaints caused Blackburn's Public Services Committee to ban coffin-less burials altogether, but this decision was promptly overturned at the next full Council meeting. The Council completely overlooked the opinions of the people who know all about the hazards of gravedigging — the gravediggers themselves. After a twenty-five minute meeting, the town's four gravediggers decided to refuse to dig graves for anymore coffin-less burials, and were fully backed by their Union, NUPE.

Despite the fact that this industrial dispute contains 'the newsworthy ingredients of a health hazard, poor working conditions, employers' disregard for workers' opinions, and Trade Union militancy, this is one issue that has not been picked up and supported by the Red press!

When a Britain First investigator spoke to a Mr. Matin, the Information Officer at the CRC, Mr. Matin confirmed that a large proportion of CRC work was printed by SW Litho. He claimed that the political affiliation of any printing company was no concern of his, he was only interested in efficiency, speed and price, and SW Litho were able to offer the best bargain — well below usual commercial rates. Mr. Matin, an Asiatic, refused to be drawn on the question of the political affiliations of CRC staff. He did not, however, deny that there were International Socialists working for the Commission.

One wonders whether we can now anticipate the CRC approaching the National Front to print their literature, and also whether SW Litho is paying their workers the full trade union rate, to be able to offer such 'attractive' prices.

This not only provides another example of how the Government, the Race Relations Industry and the Red Left all support the multi-racial situation that has been foisted upon us by the greed of international Big Business; but also prothe Capitalist Establishment is actually willing to promote so-called 'Left wing revolutionaries', especially if these groups are obsessed with attacking the only genuine revolutionary force in Britain today — the cause of British Nationalism as expounded by the National Front.

This kind of attack on the National Front from the C.R.C. runs parallel with a recent verbal attack on the NF by the Government's Race Relations Board newspaper, Equals.

Nationalists can no longer ignore the fact that we are not only up against the Reds, but directly up against the Government itself, which is utilising State agencies and taxpayers' money to mobilise imported foreigners, as well as the Reds, against us.

A fist-fight immediately broke out, and even after the CPE(M-L)ers were put into a paddy waggon, they still tried to smash their way out through the windows. Naturally, the Maoists tried to implicate the National Front in the incident, and in one of their publications claimed that a gang of NF members jumped out of a van and attacked them with starting handles!

The Communist Party of England (Marxist-Leninist) are undoubtedly the most violent Communist outfit there is. It comes as a surprise, therefore, to learn that both it and its Irish counterpart are simultaneously run by a woman doctor!! She goes by the name of Carole Reakes, but she is in fact married to Dr. Alan Evans, another Maoist. The two founded the party together with an Anglo-Indian called Hardial Bains, whilst they were studying medicine under Bains at Trinity College, Dublin.

In fact, for such a 'proletarian' organisation the CPE(M-L) harbours rather a large proportion of bourgeois elements. These include John Buckle, a Brighton physics known in music circles. The Scratch Orchestra amounted to a CPE(M-L) front, since it harboured no less than eight members — Bryn Harris, Hugh Shrapnell, Barbara Pierce, Stella and Cornelius Cardew, Frances Rifkin and Carole and Michael Chant. THREE Black youths, all of whom had previously appeared in court accused of mugging attacks, were held up at gunpoint by a Whiteman.

The incident occurred on a London tube train travelling between Stockwell and Brixton, a notorious stretch for muggings.

We are reminded of the film, Death Wish, where a White vigilante becomes a public hero as he cuts a trail of retribution and death in order to rid New York of muggers.

The film, which has outraged and frightened 'liberal' opinion, has brought audiences around the World leaping to their feet in delight as each new mugger deservedly bites the dust.

BRADFORD

OVER 800 National Front members took part in a march through Bradford in support of NF candidates standing in local council elections. The activity was organised by the go-ahead Keighly organiser, George Wright.

As the march, led by a Scots pipe band, reached its destination, it was showered with broken bottles by a hysterical Communist rabble. Also much in evidence were the Gay Liberation Front complete with pink banners, but this time without their lead-lined handbags.

After the NF members had entered the hall where their meeting was to take place, an excited gang of wild-eyed Negroes took to screaming: "We're gonna get you, Honky!", and worked off their energies by trying to kick down a side-door.

During the meeting the well known Jim Merrick of the British Campaign to Stop Immigration formally joined the National Front as the only party capable of liberating Britain.

In the elections which followed Jim Merrick, standing as a B.C.S.I. candidate in Bradford Moor Ward, won a highly impressive 28.7% of the vote in a three cornered fight.

WEST-BROMWICH WARLEY

NF NATIONAL DIRECTORATE Chairman, Kingsley Read, led a handful of National Front members and supporters through a two hundred strong mob of rioting Reds, in order to attend an NF anti-Common Market meeting in a Glasgow hall.

The meeting went well with speeches by Richard Montague, Martin Heath, and Kingsley Read. When the NF members left, however, the Reds surrounded them, spitting at, kicking and punching several women. NF members will doubtless bear this in mind next time they have an opportunity to meet members of the International Socialists and the International Marxist Group.

Bernard Levin of The Times commented upon the Red frenzy at Glasgow by presenting the violence as a clash between the extreme Left and the 'totalitarian Right' (meaning the National Front).

In his usual patronising manner Levin deplored both 'extremes' in the name of tolerance, moderation, and the Rule of Law. As Levin expresses 'safe' Establishment views from his ivory tower in the safe Establishment Times, he can afford to indulge in whims of abstract delicacy. Down in the streets and slums of our big cities where the battle of survival is underway such fastidiousness would be a fatal handicap.

LEFTISTS STOKED UP ROW IN STAFFS.

by DAVE McCALDEN

Left-wing students in the Stoke-on-Trent/North Staffordshire area have driven themselves into a tizzy over the election of an NFSA member as President of the Students Union of a local college, Cauldon College of Further Education.

Cauldon College is entitled to two seats on the local students' committee, the Stoke-on-Trent Area Association of Colleges, along with all the other universities and polytechnics nearby. But when the NFSA member, Larry Nunn, turned up to take his rightful place as President and delegate of his college, this posed a profound dialectical problem for the other representatives. Several delegates declared that they would not be willing to take part in any discussions with such a person. The delegates for North Staffs. Poly, where the meeting was held, declared that if Larry was allowed to remain, they would have to withdraw the use of their facilities.

After an 8-5 vote in favour of Larry being 'allowed' to stay, the meeting had to be immediately adjourned since their decision had inter alia deprived the STAAC committee of a venue. The committee will not be homeless for long, however, for Larry immediately stepped in with an offer of the use of his own college premises, although it is unlikely that the North Staffs. Poly. representatives will be availing themselves of the Cauldon facilities, as they are now boycotting all further meetings where Larry is present.

Throughout the pathetic campaign of attempted victimisation, the Cauldon students have supported their democratically-elected President. And whilst it cannot be said that all the students of his college necessarily agree with his personal political views, at least they have been able to see for themselves what vindictive, paranoid, petty-minded people Communists really are.

Oxford: Reds routed

VIOLENT CLASHES occurred as Communist students attempted to stop National Front members from attending an NF anti-Common Market meeting in Oxford Town Hall.

Only a thin cordon of police covered the front of the Hall, the Reds being allowed to swarm up and down the street outside at will. When about 40 National Front members arrived from London, the Reds attempted to block their path.

Despite being heavily outnumbered by several hundred Communists, the NF members succeeded in breaking through. Several Reds received an extremely good pasting from NF members who were forced to defend themselves. A number of Reds were carried off semi-conscious.

One NF activist told Britain First: "It's good a job the odds weren't in their favour!"

Although the authorities did not employ enough police to protect the NF meeting and ensure the rights of free speech that for every-

By SANDRA ROSS

Who they are : Why they do it

PART THREE

Where we stand

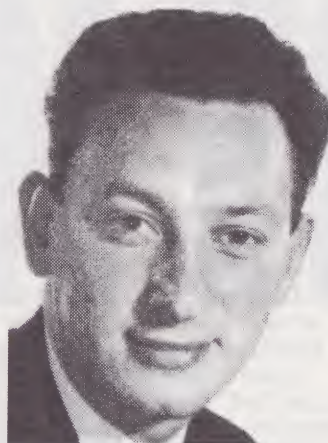

WITH coloured immigrants being brought into Britain to swell the pool of available labour and thus undercut the wage bargaining position of British workers; with Capitalists pressuring for Britain to remain trapped in the European Common Market; with powerful Financiers expanding the world money supply far in advance of the production of goods and services and thus causing inflation; with Communist disrupters pursuing their anti-working class personal ambitions by reducing major industries to chaos; THE BRITISH NATION IS UNDER ATTACK.

The National Front stands in the forefront of the political struggle to restore to our people our right to defend our racial identity and national independence. Ranged against us are the forces of those vested interests which have succeeded in reducing this once proud nation, from a hard-earned position of strength to an alarming position of economic, moral and military weakness.

The Establishment politicians, the Big Capitalists and the Communists within and without the Labour Party fear the wrath of the British People, should our nation wake up to the enormity of the wrecking operation which has been perpetrated upon it.

Knowing their guilt and desperate to stem the rising tide of British Nationalism, our enemies are frantically throwing one obstacle after another in our path in a vain attempt to stave off the day of reckoning. Local councils abuse their position by banning the NF from hiring council premises for meetings; the TV and radio find time to give broadcasting opportunities to Communists but deliberately freeze out the National Front; while the National Front is deliberately ignored or abused by the monopolist daily press.

All these obstacles we have tackled and are overcoming. All the time National Front membership is rising other organs under its command can only be regarded as potential weapons that may one day be used against us. This does not mean to say that we should be hostile to ordinary individuals who serve in the army, in the police, or elsewhere. On the contrary, it means that we must make an effort to win sympathy and support amongst these people.

On the other hand we must harbour no illusions that the Establishment will simply allow us to step into power, and may well use these institutions if we fail to neutralise them. The lesson taught by the Communist Armed Forces Movement in Portugal is plain for all to see.

The Establishment's moves to ever, he is not hostile to all forms of Nationalism. I have already pointed out his connections with Zionism (Israeli Nationalism). Another cause to which he is sympathetic is Irish Republicanism.

Paul Rose is author of The Manchester Martyrs, which is about three Irish Republican terrorists who murdered an English policeman. The book is published by Lawrence and Wishart, the Communist Party publishing company.

Paul Rose's so-called "Democratic Defence" organisation is now producing a leaflet entitled The Truth About The National Front. Its content and style of printing bear a remarkable similarity to the illegal smear leaflets which were closely associated with Ajax. The new leaflets, however, have an imprint: "c/o St. Mary's Annexe, Lower Milk St., Liverpool 3."

St. Mary's Annexe is the address of an infants school attached to a local Roman Catholic Church. The address is also used by the so-called "Merseyside Anti-Fascist Committee", at the head of which is a certain Roger O'Hara. by reducing major industries to chaos; THE BRITISH NATION IS UNDER ATTACK.

The National Front stands in the forefront of the political struggle to restore to our people our right to defend our racial identity and national independence. Ranged against us are the forces of those vested interests which have succeeded in reducing this once proud nation, from a hard-earned position of strength to an alarming position of economic, moral and military weakness.

The Establishment politicians, the Big Capitalists and the Communists within and without the Labour Party fear the wrath of the British People, should our nation wake up to the enormity of the wrecking operation which has been perpetrated upon it.

Knowing their guilt and desperate to stem the rising tide of British Nationalism, our enemies are frantically throwing one obstacle after another in our path in a vain attempt to stave off the day of reckoning. Local councils abuse their position by banning the NF from hiring council premises for meetings; the TV and radio find time to give broadcasting opportunities to Communists but deliberately freeze out the National Front; while the National Front is deliberately ignored or abused by the monopolist daily press.

All these obstacles we have tackled and are overcoming. All the time National Front membership is rising and the sales of Britain First grow and grow.

Establishment politicians, Zionists and Communists have become so worried by the National Front's remarkable growth over the past few years that they are now resorting to the age-old ploy of 'divide and conquer'. On the one hand, they are trying to stir up the Jewish population against British Nationalism by smearing the National Front as 'Fascist' and 'anti-Jewish', whilst simultaneously trying to stir up British Nationalists against the Jewish population by hijacking its community organisations and implicating them in anti-British activities.

They know as well as we do that the National Front is a one hundred per cent democratic party, both in its policies and in its organization, and that it has many Jewish members including prominent Branch organisers. The National Front does not intend to be diverted into the blind alley of anti-Semitism, no matter how much the Establishment seeks to provoke us, and no matter how many decoys they throw into our path. Likewise, it is the duty of all patriotic British Jews to shake off the stranglehold that these people have over Jewish organisations.

It is, therefore, in the interests not only of committed British Nationalists but also of the thousands of ordinary British Jews, that we are going to explore the web of intrigue that has camouflaged for too long the pernicious anti-British activities of these carpet-baggers.

other organs under its command can only be regarded as potential weapons that may one day be used against us. This does not mean to say that we should be hostile to ordinary individuals who serve in the army, in the police, or elsewhere. On the contrary, it means that we must make an effort to win sympathy and support amongst these people.

On the other hand we must harbour no illusions that the Establishment will simply allow us to step into power, and may well use these institutions if we fail to neutralise them. The lesson taught by the Communist Armed Forces Movement in Portugal is plain for all to see.

The Establishment's moves to deny us the normal use of the constitutional Parliamentary road to power also stresses the importance of our simultaneously building up an industrial base that will give us real democratic power along the lines of the Ulster Workers' Council which organised the highly successful general strike in Northern Ireland last year.

UNITED NATIONS

Anti-Nationalist organisations like the one run by Paul Rose are not only trying to use the laws of the State against us here in Britain, but are also involved in using international law on an international scale. In the last issue I dealt with the United Nations Treaties designed to repress national and racial self-defence and to institute a Nineteen Eighty-Four style System.

More evidence of UN involvement has now come to light with a recent conference which was held in Brussels on April 19th. This was not an Adolf Hitler birthday party for ex-S.S. men, but an international gathering of anti-Nationalists and multi-racialists organised by the Movement against Racism, Anti-publishing company.

Paul Rose's so-called "Democratic Defence" organisation is now producing a leaflet entitled The Truth About The National Front. Its content and style of printing bear a remarkable similarity to the illegal smear leaflets which were closely associated with Ajax. The new leaflets, however, have an imprint: "c/o St. Mary's Annexe, Lower Milk St., Liverpool 3."

St. Mary's Annexe is the address of an infants school attached to a local Roman Catholic Church. The address is also used by the so-called "Merseyside Anti-Fascist Committee", at the head of which is a certain Roger O'Hara. O'Hara's home address — which is also used by the Committee — is at 8 Crump St., Liverpool 3, in the heart of Liverpool's Black district.

Whereas we are in no way anti-Irish any more than we are anti-Jewish, we are hostile to all anti-British nationalisms being expounded on British soil, especially when this is done by people who on other occasions fervently demand that they are no different from anyone else.

SEARCHLIGHT ILLUMINATES ITSELF

In the first article in this series (see issue No.28) I examined the anti-National Front smear magazine, Searchlight, and drew attention to Searchlight's criticisms of Martin Walker, the Guardian newspaper's anti-National Front smear-monger.

One aspect of Walker's work came in for fulsome praise, however, and that was the so-called "well-documented attacks" which were "researched by freelance journalists", one of whom we reported to be the Zionist Fascist 62-Group member, Gerry Gable.

My suspected explanation for this fulsome praise has now been confirmed in print, for the third issue of the newly 'relied' Searchlight has been bold enough to reveal the name of its Editor: Gerry Gable himself.

Other names which now appear in it are those of its Managing Editor Maurice Ludmer (who

Herut is the largest opposition party in Israel and is headed by the Irgun terrorist, Menachem Begin. Before 1948 when Israel gained its independence the Irgun gained a worldwide reputation for anti-Arab and anti-British atrocities.

Amongst the worst of these was the murder of over 250 Arab villagers in Deir Yassin. These included 25 pregnant women (their bodies were ripped open with bayonets), 52 mothers with young children, and 60 other women and young girls. International Red Cross representatives found the bodies of 150 women and children in a well. The massacre ranked with the wartime German Nazi mass murder of French citizens at Oradour and the Czechs of Lidice.

Another crime committed by the Irgun was the kidnapping and torture of British Army Sergeants Clifford Martin and Mervyn Paice. When United Kingdom authorities refused to release Irgun gunmen who had been tried and convicted of murders by proper process of law, Sgts. Paice and Martin were slow hanged with wire from eucalyptus trees by the Irgun in an act of brutality strongly evocative of SS methods.

It is, therefore, in the interests not only of committed British Nationalists but also of the thousands of ordinary British Jews, that we are going to explore the web of intrigue that has camouflaged for too long the pernicious anti-British activities of these carpet-baggers.

OWING to the ceaseless hard work put in by rank and file members and the ever-expanding organisation of our Party machine, the National Front has grown to the stage where we were able to put up first 54 and then 90 candidates during the two General Elections of last year.

In the previous articles in this series I examined the attempts being made to attack the National Front's dramatic progress through the hire of Red mobs, the production of smear literature, and making the Race Relations Act really repressive. Other tactics are also being considered, including changing the British Constitution so as to hamper our participation in elections.

A report in the Bradford Telegraph and Argus of the 22nd October 1974 stated:

"Mr. Paul Rose, Labour MP for Manchester Blackley, wants to increase the deposit put up by general election candidates from £150 to £500 to discourage fringe candidates."

Paul Rose is so frightened by the rising support for the National Front amongst the electorate, that he is plotting to actually frustrate and suppress the democratic aspirations of our people, by making it possible only for those backed by a lot of money to contest elections. It is a typical piece of trickery that the organisation that he heads claims the title of "Democratic Defence". As in the Soviet Union, the ruling Establishment allows you the illusion of democracy providing you always vote for its own candidates. In the Soviet Union they only have one label, while in Britain they have several, but vote for a party that threatens their vested interests and you will immediately be denounced as 'a threat to democracy' and get suppressed.

This play by Paul Rose does at least have the function of alerting us to the fact that as long as the State is controlled by our enemies, its courts, its laws, and all the us rear democratic power along the lines of the Ulster Workers' Council which organised the highly successful general strike in Northern Ireland last year.

UNITED NATIONS

Anti-Nationalist organisations like the one run by Paul Rose are not only trying to use the laws of the State against us here in Britain, but are also involved in using international law on an international scale. Also represented was the French Movement contre le Racisme, l'Antisemitisme et pour la Paix, which has actually been granted the status of a "non government agency" by the United Nations.

We are, therefore, not only coming up against the organs and agencies of the 'British' Government, but also against the embryonic race relations board of an intended future World Government.

THE TRUTH ABOUT PAUL ROSE

Paul Rose, who has recently described Britain First as having Nazi overtones, has a confirmed history of hostility to British Nationalism. Not only has he been at the centre of numerous similar scurrilous attacks against the National Front, but he is also a leading member of the Labour Committee for Europe.

As has been noted before, how-

HERUT IN BRITAIN

This disgusting Herut organisation which owes our nation this blood-debt is today allowed to operate openly in Britain.

The "British" section of Herut was formed some 5 years ago, has a full time general secretary, and boasts a membership of over 5,000. Its chairman is George Evnine, and its vice-chairman Malvyn Benjamin.

It has two youth groups: Young Herut under the chairmanship of Ronnie Jacobs which caters for those aged 18-35, and Betar which caters for those under 18. It also has an official journal entitled Zionist Standard.

It is now based at Tel Hai, 71 Compayne Gardens, London NW6. This West Hampstead headquarters, which it shares with the Polish-Jewish Ex-Servicemen's Association, was opened in October 1974.

An anti-Palestinian leaflet produced by Essex Branch of Herut berated Jews for not being active in the Zionist cause, and asked them — quite irrelevantly — whether they would do nothing until a National Front government was in power at Westminster. Although Herut supports the idea of an Israel from the Nile to the Euphrates, it is quite hostile to any upsurge of British Nationalism.

Young Herut members have recently achieved notoriety for breaking up film shows put on by MERAG a Jewish but anti-Zionist group. A story was floated in the Morning Star which attempted to shift responsibility for these attacks by suggesting that the National Front was to blame. This is yet another typical example of the way in which certain interests are trying to provoke a conflict between the National Front and the ordinary Jewish community.

Herut is also suspected of being behind a sticker campaign ostensibly designed to resist anti-Semitism, but which is far more likely to stir it up. One sticker is headed Direct Action Zionist Group and states: "Captain Roy Farrar (and henchmen) wanted for homicide under British Mandate, Palestine 1947". Another one reads: "Remember Dov Gruner hanged under British Mandate Resist Anti-Semitism in Britain."

These stickers fit perfectly the pattern which I have been identifying in these articles, and which others have identified in the letters

THE NATIONAL FRONT

A PARTY OF NATIONALISM

The National Front is a party of British Nationalism, being pledged to work for the restoration of full national sovereignty for Britain in all affairs. It is a party of British Nationalism as it stands strongly for the preservation of Britain's national identity with respect to the composition of her people, her culture and her traditional way of life.

A PARTY OF DEMOCRACY

The National Front is a party of genuine democracy which belongs to its members.

Its governing body is its National Directorate, all officers of which are liable regularly to seek re-election by the full membership of the movement. The National Directorate is presided over by a Chairman, who is the chief official of the movement. The Chairman is elected by the members of the National Directorate every year, and can make no major decisions that do not carry the support of these members in the majority.

The NF seeks to promote in Britain a genuinely democratic political system — as distinct from the bogus democracy of the present whereby the wishes of the people are ignored in the making of major decisions and whereby power lies, not with the people themselves, but with the big moneyed interests who are able to control the political parties for their own ends.

THE COMMON MARKET

THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH

The National Front believes that Britain's destiny lies with the British Commonwealth, and resolves that every effort should be made to repair the damage done by recent governments to Commonwealth unity.

It believes, however, that the present multi-racial conception of Commonwealth is unrealistic, and that the Commonwealth should be reformed into a partnership of White countries with its main nucleus being the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Every effort should be made to persuade South Africa and Rhodesia to rejoin the Commonwealth.

THE ECONOMY

The National Front is neither capitalist nor socialist in the sense in which those terms are usually understood.

Broadly speaking, the NF supports private enterprise as the most dynamic and efficient form of industrial operation; but it advocates clearly defined limits to the function of private industry and commerce, determined by the national and public good.

Of all sections of the economy, that in which the NF supports the firmest public control is finance and banking. It regards the uncontrolled flow of money and credit into the economy, exercised by private financial interests, as the greatest single cause of inflation. It proposes state control of all credit, which will prohibit banks from issuing loans in excess of money on deposit, and grant to the Bank of England — under firm government supervision — sole right

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

The NF supports the practice of profit-sharing in industry as the best incentive to all workers. It further supports workers' partnership schemes and advocates consultation between workers and management on profits as well as wages.

IMMIGRATION

The National Front upholds the wish of the majority of the British people for Britain to remain a White country and for this reason opposes all coloured immigration into Britain.

It further advocates the repatriation, by the most humane means possible, of those coloured immigrants already here, together with their descendants and dependants.

SOCIAL WELFARE

The National Front acknowledges it as an absolute public obligation to provide adequately for the very young, the sick and the disabled in terms of accommodation, food, clothing, warmth, health and hygiene services.

NORTHERN IRELAND

The National Front firmly supports loyalists in Northern Ireland in their determination to remain part of the United Kingdom and deplores the weakness of Conservative and Labour governments in defending those loyalists and in dealing with republican terrorism.

BRITAIN AND THE WORLD

The NF, as a British nationalist movement, respects the legitimate nationalism of other peoples, and sees mutual respect between nationally orientated states as offering a better opportunity for world peace than the internationalist ambition of world government.
